

Electrical and Electronics Engineering

Academic year 2014-15

Students

- More practical oriented may be included in the curriculum
- Guest lectures are needed for better understanding of core courses.

Employer

- Students requires personality development skill training
- Programming knowledge required for the students

Parents

- Placement training required for the students
- Students' information regarding their attendance, academic performance is expected in regular intervals.

Alumni

- The library facilities will be extended
- Alumni interaction will be arranged to know the industry trends
- Opportunities may be provided for improving personal skills of the students

Action Taken Report

Being an affiliated college of JNTUH, university curriculum and syllabi is being followed. The college is following the below mentioned actions to bridge the curriculum gap.

The college follows a continuous review system for the curriculum. The Institution would like to include the following aspects which will enrich the curriculum

- Organizing guest lectures from industry experts
- Conducting courses on communication skills, placement training and employability Skills
- The students information are communicated to parents promptly
- It is planning to extend the library facilities for students
- Students are encouraged to improve their technical knowledge through technical workshop, online learning.